

Sievers, Patricia Lillian

Loving wife, best friend, golf buddy, and business partner to Dr. Farrell Sievers for 54 years; mother of Theresa, Daniel, Kellen (Laura), and Colin (Lori); and grandmother to Caley and Molly Steward and Alec, Blake, and Carson Sievers. She is also survived by her sister Jeanette (Phil) Brick, and sister-in-law Ruby Hartman, Beverly Sievers, and Marny (Bob) Schoen.

Pat was a 1950 graduate of Roosevelt High School in Minneapolis and later graduated with honors from Normandale Junior College and University of MN. She then taught first grade children for the Burnsville School District at Savage Elementary. After retiring, she was a substitute teacher in Walker, Backus and Pine River. She was past president and 14 year board member of the Hackensack CoOp, and a long-time member of the Tianna Country Club. She was also an Eucharistic Minister and Reader at Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Hackensack.

Patricia was born on October 14, 1932 in Minneapolis and died October 8, 2007 at the age of 74 in Hackensack, MN. She lived in Bloomington for 30 years before retiring to Sievers' Resort in Hackensack in 1987. She helped operate the resort until health problems prevented her from continuing.

Pat was preceded in death by her mother Isabel Lee, step parents Clarence and Eleanor Lee, brother Gene Hartman and father Ralph Hartman.

Mass of Christian Burial will be 1 PM on Thursday at Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Hackensack with Father Mark Coen officiating. Burial will follow at Hillcrest Cemetery, Hackensack. Visitation will be Wednesday from 5 to 7 PM at Kline Funeral Home, Pine River, and one hour prior to the Mass at the church. Arrangements are with Kline Funeral Home, Pine River.
